

Comparative Philology Graduate Seminar

Michaelmas Term 2012

Towards a synchronic grammar of Proto-Indo-European

Conveners: Peter Barber, Wolfgang de Melo, Philomen Probert

16th October (Week 2) Philip Roberts and Helena Beeley

Introduction to the Proto-Indo-European Consonant System

The Phonotactics of Reduplication (PR)

Labiovelars beside *-u- (HB)

23rd October (Week 3) Peter Barber

Proto-Indo-European Syllabification

30th October (Week 4) Nicholas Zair (University of Cambridge)

Laryngeals in Proto-Indo-European

6th November (Week 5) Ben Cartlidge and Philomen Probert

Introduction to Proto-Indo-European Morphology

Ablaut (PP)

Vrddhi (BC)

13th November (Week 6) Helen Sims-Williams and John Lowe

Further Topics in Proto-Indo-European Morphology

Internal Derivation (HSW)

The Caland System (JL)

20th November (Week 7) Tam Blaxter and Robin Meyer

Proto-Indo-European Syntax

27th November (Week 8) Wolfgang de Melo and Ilya Yakubovich

Proto-Indo-European from a Typological Perspective (WdM)

The Homeland Question (IY)

The seminar is held on Tuesdays at 2.15pm (weeks 2-8) in the Centre for Linguistics and Philology, Walton Street