

Sociolinguistics Seminar

Trinity Term 2026

Convenors:

Devyani Sharma, Magnus Hamann

Tuesdays, 4-5pm

Schwarzman Centre for the Humanities

Seminar Room 10.019 (Week 5), 10.303 (Weeks 6, 7, 8)

This new seminar series is for postgraduate students and Faculty members with an interest in any aspect of Sociolinguistics. We welcome attendees from any Faculty. If you are an undergraduate student and would like to attend, please contact one of the convenors (devyani.sharma@ell.ox.ac.uk or magnus.hamann@phc.ox.ac.uk).

As this series is new, the first term will aim to identify a regular group of attendees and a range of interests. The meetings this term will feature informal talks by sociolinguists at Oxford, with a focus on larger themes and questions in the field. Titles will be available soon. In later terms, we will combine internal and external speakers with occasional readings and informal discussions.

Week 5 (May 26): Devyani Sharma

Week 6 (June 2): Magnus Hamann

Week 7 (June 9): Kate Tallon

Week 8 (June 16): Lilia Bespala
